How and when do students register for courses?

- Chinese language training courses at School of Chinese as a Second Language: course allocation (elementary, intermediate or advanced) will depend on the result of the pre-arrival online self-assessment on Chinese language proficiency and the faceto-face interview in the orientation week;
- 2. Undergraduate/graduate courses: select courses online after registration.
- The school and department reserve the right to register students into certain course depending on programs and course availability.

Courses are NOT available in these faculties/programs

- Health Science Center
- School of Software and Microelectronics
- Faculty with special pre-requisites
- Tailor-made programs
- Double-degree courses
- Shenzhen Graduate School (case-by-case discussion is needed)
- English-taught graduate courses of special Master programs (MBA, Master in International Relations, Master in Public Policy, LLM in Chinese Law, Yenching Academy, etc.)
- Chinese-taught Master-level courses are only available with the faculty's permit

Transcript/ Study certificate

We will send official transcripts to the international office of home university at the beginning of next semester (late September/middle March).

If a student needs an extra copy or a study certificate, he or she can consult ISD in early January/late June. For extra copies, they need to pay a minor fee.

ACCOMMODATION

Please check first with home university whether the bilateral student exchange agreement covers free accommodation. If it does, your room will be AUTOMATICALLY allocated in the Global Village upon arrival, shared with another international student. There is no independent bathroom in the dorm, but there is bathroom on each floor. Any special requests must be addressed directly to Global Village upon check-in.

For those whose accommodation is not covered by PKU, they can either apply dormitory on campus (if available) or rent an apartment off campus.
