

筑波大学
University of Tsukuba

Andrés Gerónimo Campos
アンドレスヘロニモカンポス
School of Art and Design

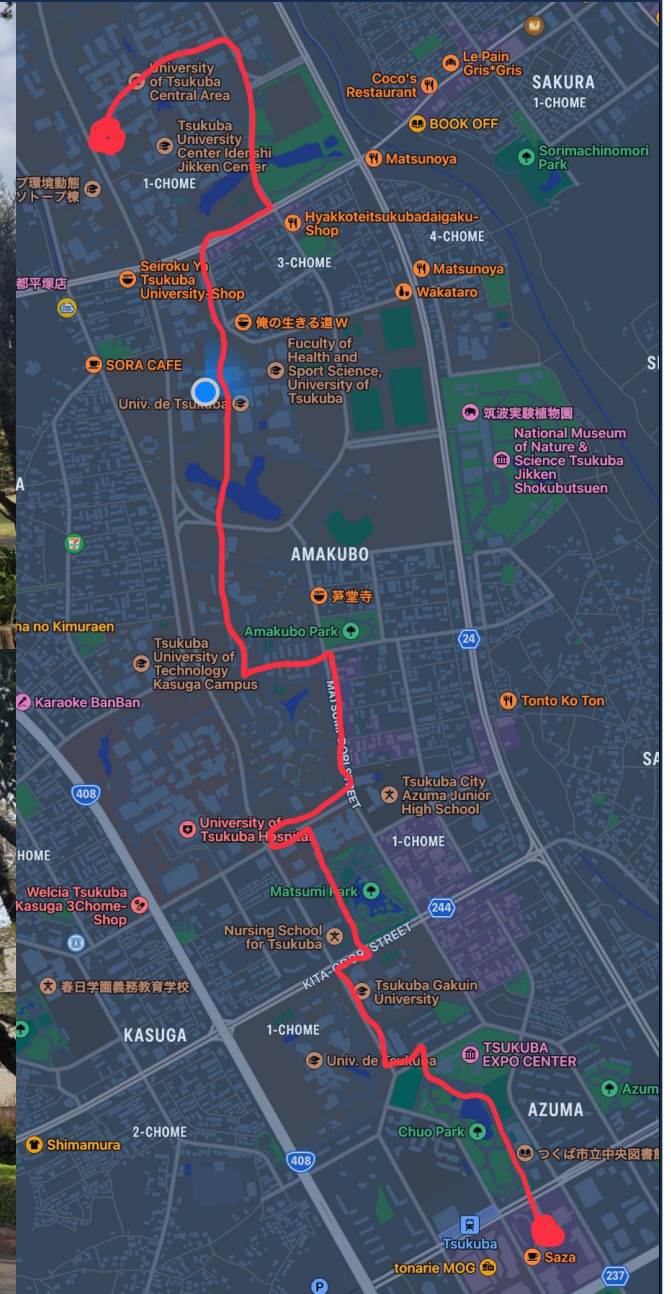

Moving in

- Managing the Currency
- Figuring out how everything works
- Doing the necessary paperwork
- Figuring out what to eat and where to eat
- Getting a PASMO Card
- Getting a SIM Card

Doing reconnaissance

- On First day: Walked from Ichinoya Dorms to Tsukuba Station
- Looking Online for points of interest
- Getting to know the neighborhood
- Finding where to exchange money
- Finding the nearest Conbini

日本語

- Studied for 2 years in my home College
- Language barrier was still present
- Managing the language in classes
- Help from Teachers and my tutor was essential
- Kanji is still a great hurdle

Kansei Design

- Adding human emotion to my Designs
- Working with technology to understand human emotion
- A designer is not one who creates, is one who thinks
- Understanding how things work from the human perspective

2D Composition

- Pattern Design
- Acrylic painting technique
- Color differentiation
- Motif design
- Chiguiro motif

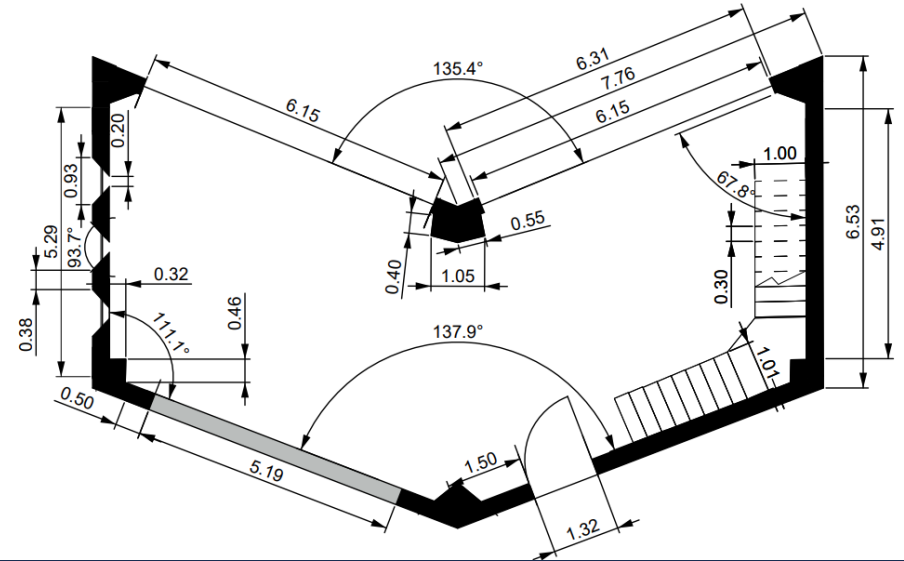

Terracotta and Screen Printing

- Analog technique
- Material and color!
- Another Chiguiro
- You can find the statue at Takezono Park!

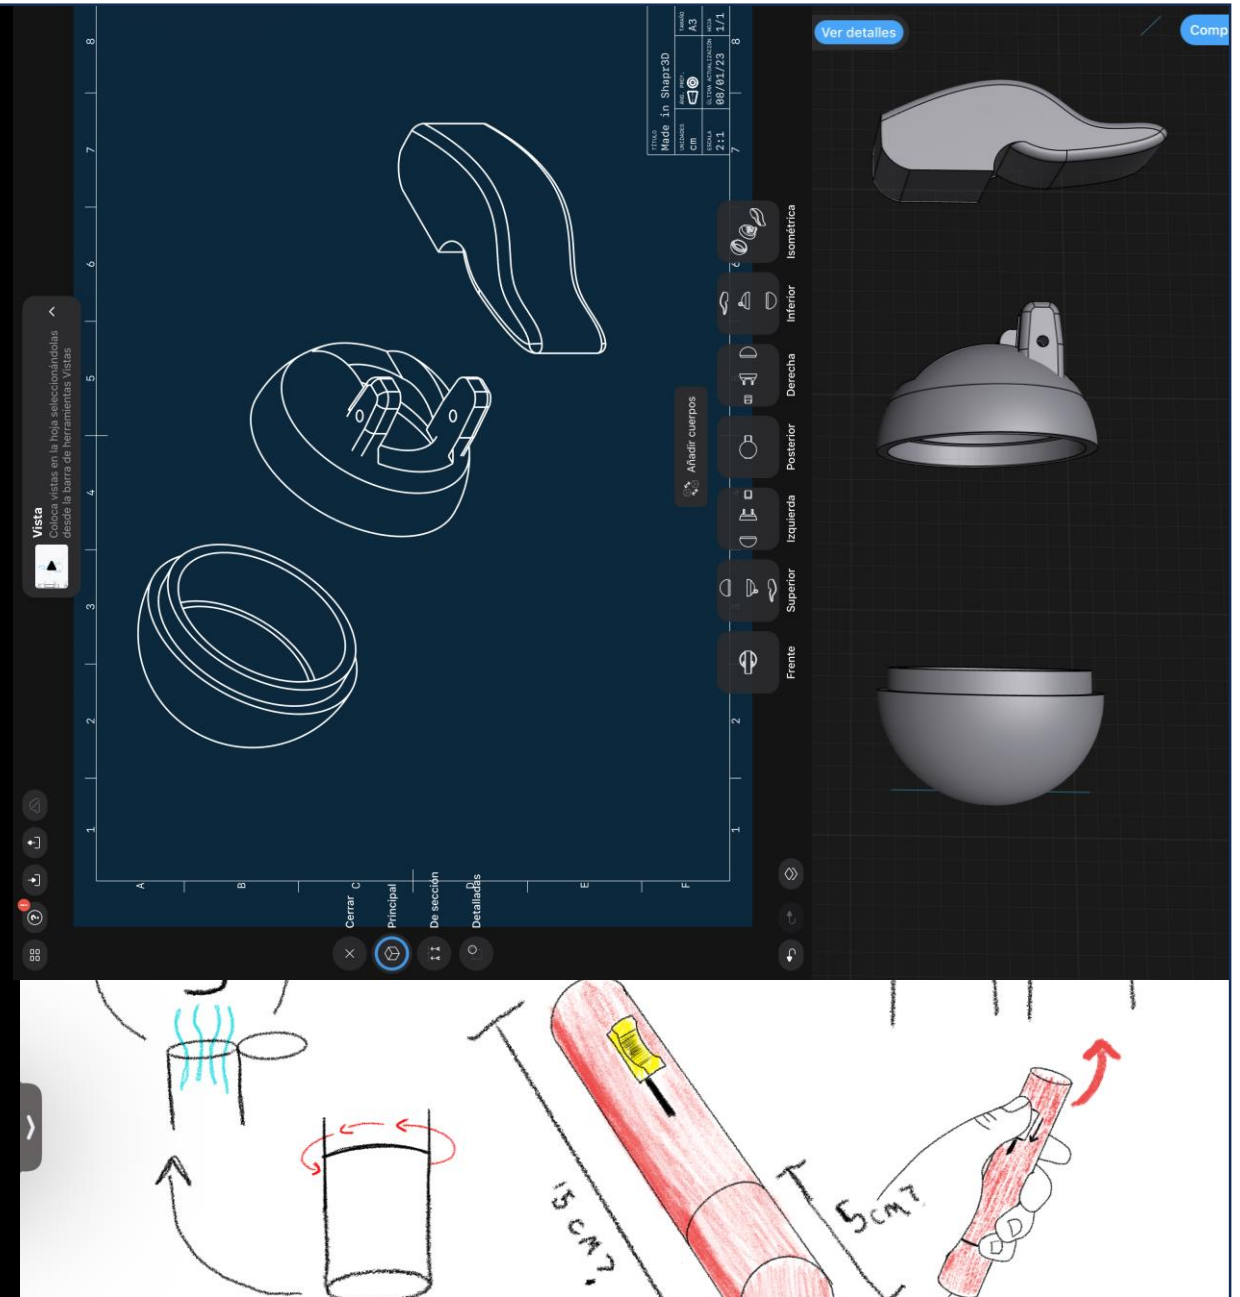

- Architecture class!
- Designing a vacation home
- Used a lot of cardboard!
- Technical drawing and scale model

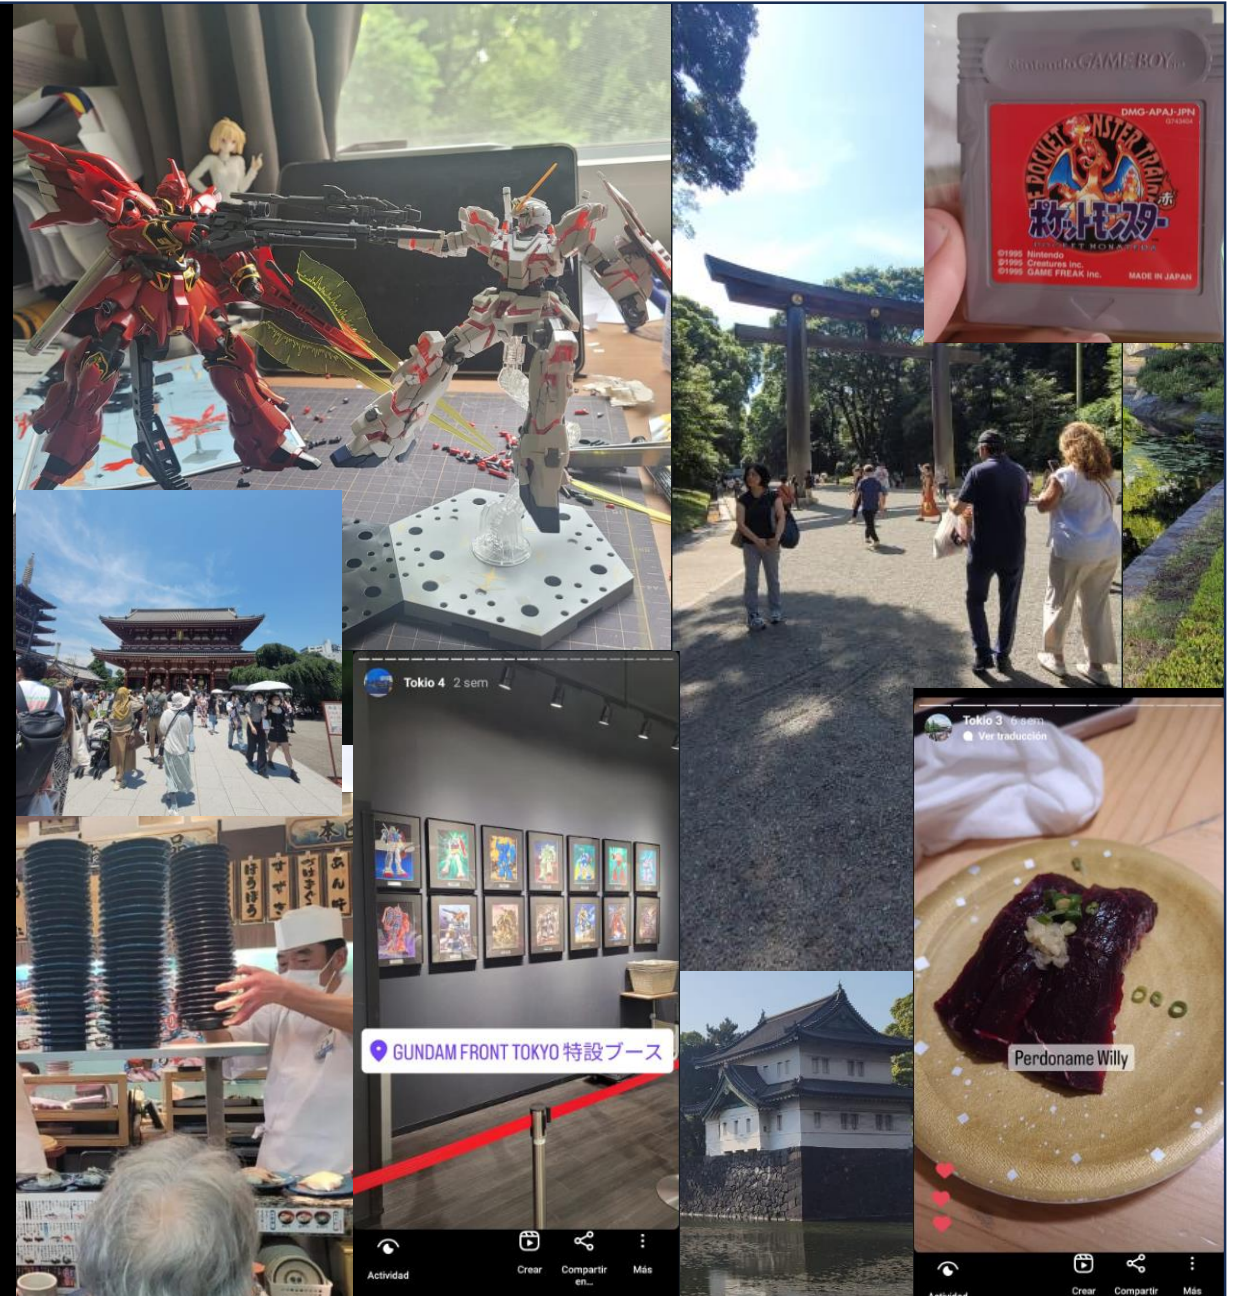

Design Evaluation and Empyrical Research and Workshop on Info. And Industrial Design

- Prototyping and data meassurement
- Statistical and experiment design
- Quick sketches and 3D printing
- Portable smell capsule!

Studying and being a tourist

- The summer can get a bit unbearable
- Going to Tokyo as many times as possible
- Eating unexpected dishes from Japanese cuisine
- Visiting important cultural locations
- Keeping track of responsibilities
- Lots, and lots, of shopping!

ありがとうございます！