Consequently, students must possess a proficient command of Portuguese to participate in these classes (CEFR B1 level). A formal language proficiency certificate is not mandatory. Research activities, on the other hand, do not impose specific language requirements. These activities may be conducted in a language mutually agreed upon between the student and their supervisor.

STUDENT SERVICES, SUPPORT AND CAMPUS LIFE

LANGUAGE COURSE	The exchange student can attend (during the semester, not before) an intensive Portuguese course offered by the Language Learning Center (Centro de Línguas da FFLCH) at the São Paulo Campus only – Cidade Universitária. Certain centers offer specialized programs for various sports, including soccer, basketball, volleyball, and swimming. These programs are overseen by professionals in their respective fields and are accessible to international students. Beyond its museums, USP is home to numerous cultural centers and groups, offering students a diverse array of options for leisure and cultural engagement.
ACCOMMODATION	Accommodation options for exchange students are not provided on the campuses. Students are responsible for conducting their own search for accommodation based on their financial circumstances and preferences. For more details on alternative housing options outside the campuses, please reach out to the Local International Offices: (http://internationaloffice.usp.br/en/index.php/institutional/usp-units-offices).
